AN HONORABLE CALLING

Food is the first and most valuable necessity to mankind. We are distributors of first class, sanitary foods. We play an important part in maintaining the lives and health of the community. We bear this in mind; our greatest motive is for more efficiency in carrying out the principles of our organization.

PRICE IMPORTANT BUT NOT PARAMOUNT

A store cannot be successful in price alone; it must adopt modern methods of display, cleanliness, friendliness and willingness to serve.

In our store you can be waited on or you can help yourself. You can have two deliveries daily, and you can get the best quality merchandise at a price that is consistent with good business.

Mathis Market

A good place to trade—food is clean and attractively displayed and priced. The help is courteous and our prices are always right. It always pays to take advantage of our week end specials.

Cinderella Shop

To the ladies who wish to fit themselves with a Fall outfit in advance we wish to announce that our stock is coming in daily, and probably by August 25 our entire fall stock will be on display.

Summer has not gone, however, and we are still offering some wonderful bargains in light clothing.

HUNGRY PAIR OVERLOOK CASH

Two prowlers entered Mathis market early Sunday morning and after obtaining a hearty breakfast which they ate in the store, departed without taking any other articles or opening the cash drawer which contained about ten dollars.

Entrance was made through a window in the office at the rear of the store, which had been broken, allowing the prowlers to raise the lower part and squeeze through. The burglary probably occurred about 5 o'clock in the morning. Gordon Mathis went to the store about midnight and at that time nothing had been disturbed. According to Lorenzo Bringhurst, nightwatchman, the window was intact when he made his rounds just before going off duty at 5 o'clock.

The burglars after picking edibles to suit their taste, spread the meal on the floor in the rear of the store. Two plates were set out, beside them being an empty pork and bean can, empty milk can, a box of shredded wheat from which four biscuits had been taken, and orange peelings were scattered about.

After appeasing their appetite they left by the back door which they unbolted from the inside, leaving the door open.

THREE GAMES PLAYED WEDNESDAY NIGHT BY INDUSTRIAL TEAMS

Three basketball games were played Wednesday night among the teams representing the various business houses of St. George. Winners of the games were: Pickett Lumber, Bill's Service and Cox's garage, and Mathis Market.

The most closely contested game was the low score affair staged by Mathis Market and Milne Cousins which the former won by the score of 6 to 5. The game between Pickett Lumber and Miller Bros., was just the other extreme with Picketts coming out on the long end of a 33 to 2 score. Heaton Motor took another loss when they were only able to chalk up 7 points to the Bill Cox combinations 17.

Considerable interest is being manifest by the business men of the town and after a general line up is made of the players and their abilities, more even combinations will be devised, state officials of the Athletic club. They also expect to start playing hand ball and volley ball. Under the present arrangement the club is allotted the gymnasium for three hours each Wednesday night.

At present only one game has been listed for next Wednesday night and that is a game between Snow-Nelson Lumber and the Jockey Enterprises. It is anticipated that other games will be on tap for that night, state club officials.
