

History as Art and Craft

A Conversation with Historians

A Utah Historical Quarterly Special Event

Thursday, February 19, 4 pm

Washington County Historic Courthouse (97 E. St. George Blvd., St. George)

Moderated by BRAD WESTWOOD, director of the Utah Division of State History, the panel discussion includes:

AMBER D'AMBROSIO - Special Collections Librarian, Dixie State University Library

EDWARD LEO LYMAN - Emeritus Professor of History, Victor Valley College (CA)

MARK MILLER - Professor of History and Department Chair, Southern Utah University

JEDEDIAH ROGERS - Senior State Historian and co-managing editor of the Utah Historical Quarterly

RICHARD SAUNDERS - Dean of Library Services, Southern Utah University's Gerald R. Sherratt Library

We've assembled a cast of historians to speak about the art and craft of history--how historians do their work, tackle complex and often controversial topics, and seek meaning and significance in the past. This free ranging-discussion will emphasize the history of southern Utah and the historians who worked there, including Juanita Brooks.

All members of the public are cordially invited to this event.

This special event is part of a regular series of lectures highlighting the work and scholarship of the Utah Historical Quarterly, Utah's official historical journal.
