

Many of us know that the Signers of the Declaration of Independence appeared to Wilford Woodruff asking to have their temple work done in the St. George Temple. On the 21st of Aug. 1877 President Wilford Woodruff was baptized for 100 men including the Signers of the Declaration of Independence, American Presidents, and other eminent men. There were additional men and also eminent women, including some wives whose vicarious work was also completed. Their ordinance work was performed on the 21st, 22nd, and 23rd of Aug. 1877. However, very few people have known that six days later on the 29th of Aug. 1877 temple work was done for 85 Indian Chiefs. People are amazed to learn about this astounding event that occurred in the St. George Temple.

I, Delores Kahkonen, an Iroquois, Upper Cayuga of the Bear Clan, will speak to you about these incredible Chiefs and why their temple work was overshadowed and forgotten. Out of the 85 Chiefs 74 are Iroquois Chiefs – my people. My Grandmother was a famous Iroquois and Indian Historian and she began to teach me all she knew when I was three years old. You are invited to come for a PowerPoint presentation, “The Full Glory of the Lord,” to learn about the current revelations, miracles, and events that have occurred regarding the St. George Temple Indian Chiefs from 1877.
