In conjunction with the arrival of the Fall season we are excited to announce the first month's schedule of the 2019-20 Marilyn Davis Brown Bag Lecture Series. Please reference the attached information for the month of October which will be available for sign up beginning Monday, September 16.

WELCOME BACK TO THE FALL SEASON!! OCTOBER 2019 MARILYN DAVIS BROWN BAG LECTURE SERIES SCHEDULE

OCT 4 – GLEN CANYON CONSERVANCY – MARTIN STAMAT

Glen Canyon Conservancy partners with public lands in northern Arizona and southern Utah to create learning opportunities, enhance visitor experience, and inspire stewardship. Founded in 1986 as Glen Canyon Natural History Association, GCC offers educational programming, products, and services to help visitors find a lasting connection with their public lands. The organization utilizes member support and retail proceeds at 10 locations throughout the region to generate funds that support educational, safety, outreach, and research programs.

OCT 11 –DIXIE ARIZONA STRIP INTERPRETIVE ASSOCIATION (DASIA) STAFF

DASIA staff and Board are excited to begin another season of Brown Bag lectures and 2020 field trips! We will review past field trip adventures and unveil the slate of trips for 2020. We will also describe a new membership benefits structure. Come and hear about a new evening lecture series being developed for the coming months.

OCT 17 – KANAB FIELD OFFICE ADVENTURES – CLAY STEWART

The Kanab Field Office is located in Utah's Kane County, near the Utah-Arizona border, Lake Powell, and Arizona's Grand Canyon. East of Kanab are the Vermilion Cliffs that run north through open country. The Paria River cuts through the Vermilion Cliffs traveling through the Paria Canyon-Vermilion Cliffs Wilderness Area on the Utah-Arizona border. Backpackers who visit this area hike through narrow, twisting canyons of the Buckskin Gulch and Paria River. We may even hear about a feature called the Wave!

OCT 25 – ARAVADA SPRINGS – MARK RAWLINS

For generations, the Nay Ranch (formerly known as the Whitney Ranch), has hosted family reunions, Boy Scout and Girl Scout groups, community and church groups, and large groups of friends. Aravada Springs is committed to welcoming families and other groups to a newly developed group camping site. Amenities, activities and adventures around this historic spot on the Arizona Strip will be described.

IMPORTANT NOTE REGARDING REGISTRATION TO ATTEND BROWN BAG LECTURES:

Due to limited seating and high demand, you must register to attend any lecture. Sign up begins one week prior to each program at approximately 1:10 p.m. on each Friday at the conclusion of the program. Sixty seats are reserved for general admission, with an additional 20 seats for DASIA members. An additional 30-slot waiting list will be made available when the program is oversubscribed. Those on the waiting list will be contacted by telephone when a seat becomes available. Please be at the Public Lands Information Center by 11:45 a.m. to claim your seat.

Reservations may be made by calling the Public Lands Information Center at 435.688.3200
