

Diane Imlay(1943 - 2017)

Diane Blake Imlay

Pine Valley

Diane Blake Imlay was born June 2, 1943 in St. George, UT, to Cecil and Virginia Latimer Blake. After losing her mother at an early age, her father remarried Carol Dean who lovingly stepped into the role as her mother. She married Arthur Barton Imlay September 12, 1960 in St. George UT. Their marriage was later solemnized in the St. George LDS Temple. Diane passed away October 3, 2017 at her home in Pine Valley, UT.

Diane grew up in Dixie. She learned the value of hard work at an early age working alongside siblings on her family's dairy farm. Diane's heritage and family were very important to her. This value was emphasized through her love and lifelong service to immediate and extended family.

Diane was a devoted wife, mother and grandmother. Spending time with her grandchildren brought her the most joy. Her other interests included raising an amazing vegetable garden, quilting, family history research, baking and canning, caring for and raising animals, bowling with her friends, growing a wild flower garden, building a home and living in Pine Valley, and her nightly bowl of ice cream.

She is survived by her husband, children; John C. Imlay, Virginia Dorosky (Tom), Jody B. Imlay, and Susan Hunter(Brandon), siblings; Janice Zeigler, Darrell Blake and Ronald L. Blake. She is also survived by eight grandchildren and five (almost six) great grandchildren. She is preceded in death by her parents, sister Margaret Decker and brother, Henry Blake.

A graveside service will be held Friday October 6, 2017 at 2:00 pm at the Hurricane City Cemetery. Arrangement are made under the direction of Spilsbury Mortuary, (435) 673-2454. Family and friends are invited to sign Diane's guestbook at www.spilsburymortuary.com.
