Utah • Washington City

Welcome

Today Washington City is a thriving city that is attractive to many both retired and young. It is one of the cities of Southern Utah that has exploded with population growth. With growth comes challenges. It's never easy to balance the future needs with historic ideals. Washington City strives to preserve historic locations and buildings. Leadership and staff would like to invite you to explore some of these local historic spots learning about and appreciating the heritage that makes Washington City what it is today.
