TAX FORMS YOU MUST FILE:

Notice of New Employer Identification Number Assigned

Thank you for your Form SS-4, Application for Employer Identification Number (EIN). The number assigned to you is shown above. This number will be used to identify your business account and related tax returns and documents, even if you do not have employees.

1. Keep a copy of this number in your permanent records.
2. Use this number and your name exactly as shown above, on all Federal tax forms.
3. Use this number on all tax payments and tax related correspondence or documents.

Any variation used when filing tax returns, making FTD payments or subsequent payments may result in improper or delayed posting of payments to your account and/or the assignment of more than one EIN.

The filing requirement(s) and tax period shown above have been established for your account based on information contained on your Form SS-4. If you are a trust, your tax year generally must be a calendar year, unless you are exempt from taxation under section 501(a) of the Internal Revenue Code or a charitable trust described in section 4947(a)(1) of the Code. A partnership must conform its tax year to either its majority partners, its principle partners, or a calendar year, in that order, unless it can establish a business purpose for using a different year. Personal service corporation must have a required year for its tax year unless it can establish a business purpose for using a different year. See Publication 538, Accounting Periods and Methods, for a fuller discussion on the required year, including exceptions to the requirements. This publication is available at most IRS offices for more information.

Please note that the assignment of this number does not grant tax-exempt status to nonprofit organizations. Any organization (other than a private foundation) having annual gross receipts normally of $25,000 or less is exempt by statute if it meets the requirements of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. These organizations are not required to file Form 1023 (Application for Recognition of Exemption) or file Form 990 (Return of Organization Exempt from Income Tax). However, if the organization wants to establish its exemption with the Internal Revenue Service and receive a ruling or determination letter recognizing its exempt status, it should file Form 1023 with the key district director. For details on how to apply for this exemption, see IRS publication 557, Tax-Exempt Status for your Organization, available at most IRS offices.

Thank you for your cooperation.

Note: If 501-C3 coverage is necessary, this application will seek coverage under the umbrella of the City of St. George 503-C3 number.
