

HUMPHRIES FINED $299.99 ON ASSAULT

N. L. Humphreys, of St. George, was convicted in the District Court of the Fifth District of the crime of simple Assault by a jury today, and was fined the sum of $299.99 by Judge LeRoy H. Cox.

Mr. Humphreys was accused of an assault with a deadly weapon upon one Charles Larson, with a sharp instrument. In the assault Larson was cut around the head and throat and nearly bled to death before medical assistance was obtained.

The evidence showed that the parties involved had been out to Little Arizona, a beer garden, and on the road back the attack was said to have taken place. Humphreys claimed that he had been drinking and was asleep and did not know that he had made the attack upon Larson.

The jury sworn to try the case were Harvey Jackson, Reed Fuller, Marion Laub, Emil Barlock, N. Dee Keate, Frank Reber, David Sterling, and James Crawford. The jury were out about 12 hours before arriving at a verdict.
