

ABOUT THE AUTHOR, LINDA (STANWORTH) DINKEL

I am the granddaughter of (cover) Clara Marie (Scott) and Thomas Irving Stanworth. I've been a genealogist for over 50 years. I'm LDS and retired. I've traveled to many of the locations written of in the book to research the truth. My 2nd book, "Sarah Ann, A Mighty Branch," sold for several years at the DUP Pioneer Museum in Salt Lake. I have a perpetual exhibit (see the photo) at the museum of Sarah Ann (Smith) Fisher that I personally installed April 2013, the first and largest private exhibit installed at the museum in 25 years, at the time. My father (deceased), Garn T. Stanworth, born & raised in Hurricane, entomologist, pilot, professional photographer, are whose landscapes are included in the book. He was, in retirement, a contributor of articles & photos to St. George Magazine from 2000-2007. My mother's, Jeanne (Morriss) Stanworth (deceased), poetry accompanies some of the photographs.
