

ST. GEORGE LITERARY ARTS FESTIVAL
MAY 18, 19, 2018

DIXIE STATE UNIVERSITY
ECCLES FINE ARTS AUDITORIUM
FRIDAY

May 18, 2018 6:00 – 9:00

South West Dance Company: Choreographer, Summer Robertson
Dance renditions choreographed from Poetry by 2015 Poet of the Year, Candy Lish Fowler.

Poetry to Art Competition – Contestants Judged and winners announced.
Poems were chosen from our web site – artists rendered their visual interpretations of the poetry.

Four Individuals were given Awards for Outstanding Achievements for literary contributions throughout the year: LaVerna Johnson,
Marlene Bussma, Marilyn Richardson, Amy Jareki

7:00 – 8:00 ANGIE HODAPP – KEYNOTE SPEAKER
7 Building Blocks to Best Selling writing

SATURDAY: SNOW SCIENCE BLDG. 11:00 AM TO 4:00 PM
May 19, 2018

Workshops were ongoing throughout the day on the following topics:
Cowboy Poetry, Illustrating, Podcasting, Ten Steps to Overnight Success
as a Writer, It's All About the Hook, Publishing Secrets and Writing Success, Poetry in Action, How to Successfully Fail, Horror, and Comedy: One Side of the Same Coin, Paper, Pencil, Words, & Magic, Telling a Real Compelling Story, Step into our World, Contemporary Writing, Laughing is fun: Changing the World One Word at a Time.

PANEL DISCUSSION: Step Into Our World (Poetry)

Workshops for Children: Stubby the War Dog Forget Me Not Please General Custer, I Don't Want To Go

Storytime with Miss Ani: 10:00 and 11:00

Authors of Published books were chosen to do Children's Workshops in the schools – using their book as a model for teaching.

Every student k thru 12 – were contacted with regard to the Festival: 3,200 students total.