Women of the Silver Reef

Old mining towns seem to be like the men that lived in them, rough, tough, and lawless.

However, a quarter of the population of Silver Reef was female. What brought these women and children to Silver Reef, and what did they do there?

Learn about the women of Silver Reef and see the types of clothing that they wore at the end of the nineteenth century.

Join us at 10:00 on Saturday, September 24, 2016, at the Cosmopolitan Meeting Hall in Silver Reef, Utah.

Presentations will be given by Silver Reef historian Elaine Young and Dixie Miller.

Suggested Donation: $3.00

Silver Reef Museum and our events are supported by your generous donations.

Thank you in advance for your support!

***Silver Reef Museum will be hosting a Smithsonian Institution/ US National Archives traveling exhibit: "The Way We Worked" sponsored in Utah by Utah Humanities in Sept/Nov. 2017.

"The Way We Worked" has been made possible in Utah by Utah Humanities. The exhibition, created by the US National Archives, is part of Museum on Main Street, a collaboration between the Smithsonian Institution and State Humanities Councils nationwide. Support for Museum on Main Street has been provided by the United States Congress. The Washington County, Utah tour of "The Way We Worked" is hosted by the Silver Reef Museum, Leeds, UT. Many thanks to our local partners and generous funders for their support of "The Way We Worked" in Washington County.
