Conference Tour
Saturday, Oct. 1, 2016
9:00 a.m. – 6:30 p.m.

Hosted by Fort Douglas Military Museum.   Battle or massacre? Historians still debate the events of that cold winter day in January 1863 when soldiers from Camp Douglas attacked a village of Shoshone on the Bear River near the Utah-Idaho border. Follow the route of the soldiers as the marched north from Camp Doulas and walk the site of the actual battle. An informative and thought provoking day exploring Utah's historic past.

Cost: $65 per person (includes transportation, lunch and field trip booklet)

Please note that a separate paid registration is required for this tour and is not part of the free conference. Please call 801-581-1251 or email admin@fortdouglas.org to register.
