

DECEMBER 2017 BROWN BAG SCHEDULE

DEC 1 ANN McLUCKIE, UT DIVISION OF WILDLIFE RESOURCES – HABITAT RESTORATION AT THE RED CLIFFS DESERT RESERVE

The Red Cliffs Desert Reserve is administered by Washington County in coordination with the Bureau of Land Management (BLM), United States Fish and Wildlife Service (FWS), Utah Department of Natural Resources (DNR), and State of Utah School and Institutional Trust Lands Administration (SITLA). This collaborative partnership has the primary goal of recovering the threatened desert tortoise while carefully managing recreational activities and utility projects in an extraordinarily unique environment that will benefit future generations.

DEC 8 TARA THOMPSON – DIXIE FOUR WHEEL DRIVE

Southwest Utah continues to become more and more popular as an off-road vehicle destination. Tara Thompson of Dixie 4 Wheel Drive will review the wide variety of off-road routes available to explore, both in Utah and on the Arizona Strip.

DEC 15 DIANA HAWKS & GLORIA BULLETS BENSON – VISIT WITH RESPECT

The truth is many people don't know how simple it is to visit cultural and scientific sites like cliff dwellings, rock art panels, dinosaur fossils and historic structures respectfully. By following some simple tips, walking softly, and leaving things where we find them, we show respect for those who came before us and those who will visit after us.

DEC 22 KEITH BEHUNIN AND HIS FERTILE DIRT BAND

The Fertile Dirt Band is an audience interactive bluegrass band utilizing the musical instruments that were available in the days of the pioneers. Our audience will recreate that pioneer music sound with washboards, spoons, cow bells, jugs, washtub bass and bending saws, the sounds of which have not been heard for 150 years. Fun takes precedence over aural (of the ear) sensuousness!
