Subject: Fw: Randel mcgee old world paper-cutter

Randel Mc Gee professional storyteller and papercutting artist will be at the Santa Clara branch of the library on Sunset Drive on Friday October 19 at 4:00pm.

The Santa Clara Historical museum is sponsoring Mr McGee. The early Swiss settlers of Santa Clara brought the art of decorative papercutting with them from the old country. For years there were no stores with beautiful valentine or birthday cards so the pioneers used scraps of paper to cut their own Cards.

In an effort to keep these early traditions in mind, Randel McGee will tell folktales while cutting paper designs. This event is free and open all. For a very interesting experience please attend.
