DECEMBER 20 – KEITH BEHUNIN AND HIS FERTILE DIRT BAND

Please join us this Friday, December 20 in welcoming Keith Behunin and his Fertile Dirt Band for a return engagement where we will all join together in making music and harmony in celebration of the season!

A favorite holiday Brown bag tradition, the Fertile Dirt Band is an audience interactive bluegrass band utilizing the musical instruments that were available in the days of the pioneers. Our audience will recreate that pioneer music sound with washboards, spoons, cow bells, jugs, washtub bass and bending saws, the sounds of which have not been heard for 150 years. Fun takes precedence over (aural of the ear) sensuousness!

And a new change up for you all, due to a scheduling opportunity and in our favor for sure, we will be having a Brown Bag Luncheon to bring in the New Year on Friday, January 3 as we welcome James Anton a professor of English at Southern Utah University and co-author of The Crimson Cowboys: The Remarkable Odyssey of the 1931 Chafin Emerson Expedition. This will be a good one and more information will be coming your way next week on this and other Brown Bag Luncheons.

As always, we look forward to seeing you this Friday, December 20 at 12 pm (noon) for another chapter of the Marilyn Davis Brown Bag Series Lecture Series.
