

Suggestion In-lieu of Cancelled Lecture

From: richard kohler (rrkarchitect@gmail.com)

To: grcannonjr@yahoo.com

Cc: rrkarchitect@gmail.com

Date: Thursday, April 2, 2020, 05:27 PM MDT

All of you,

The historical society cancelled a planned lecture at the Pioneer Courthouse, that would have happened at 7 pm. I sure you would have enjoyed it.

We would like to suggest that you attend a virtual lecture instead by going to <http://wchsutah.org/documents/prince-arrington-book5.wav>

This lecture was given by Greg Prince at the Eccles Center on the Dixie State Campus in the spring of 2017. Doug Alder, a former president of Dixie State University, does a wonderful job of introducing a very notable local historian Greg Prince.

Greg's lecture is about another important historian, Leonard Arrington, the author of Great Basin Kingdom and a biography of David O. McKay.

The audio file is about one hour long. Enjoy.

Richard Kohler

P.S. If you would like to email me with any comments or thoughts you might have on the lecture, feel free to email me a rrkarchitect@gmail.com or call 702.445.3650