Al Matheson just shared with me information about a program that grew out of one he was coordinating for the Sons of Utah Pioneers. It will take the form of a live fireside via Zoom on Sunday, March 14 at 7:00 pm. It will also be recorded and then posted on YouTube. I will share that link with you when I get it.

The live program from the University of Utah includes participants from the Tabernacle Choir, Cello artists/Piano Guys, University of Utah, Marshall Macdonald. It is directed to legacy organizations of the Church, the Sons of Utah Pioneers and Daughters of Utah Pioneers in particular, though it is intended to be a special offering to include rest homes and others in the vicinity as well.
