

2022 Historical Lecture Series

Thursday, March 17
7:00 PM @ Relief Society Hall

Based on the book

Transportation, Indians & Industry

Ron Romney

Guest Speaker & WCHS Board Member

Ron Romney will be our guest speaker on March 14, 2022. Come and learn about the early challenges the pioneers faced in establishing beautiful Washington, Utah! Refreshments and mingling afterward.

- TRANSPORTATION & COMMUNICATION

Stones, volcanic rock, and deep sand made road-building difficult. Mail service and the telegraph.

- INDIAN RELATIONS

Farming, the slave trade, and the Black Hawk War.

- HOME INDUSTRY

Lighting, soap-making, wine-making, silk industry, the Neilson Store, Fort Pearce & livestock.

(Chapters 8-10 of The Red Hills of November)

Washington City Historical Society hosts a series of guest speakers on the third Thursday of the month. These discussions are FREE and open to the public. Topics will be taken from the book "Red Hills of November," and speakers will be selected based on their knowledge and experience with the subjects being covered.