

UNCOVER THE PAST

YOU'RE INVITED TO PARTICIPATE IN ARCHAEOLOGICAL EXCAVATIONS AT FORT HARMONY, UTAH.

Fort Harmony, located one mile west of I-15 between Cedar City and St. George, Utah, was occupied by pioneers from 1854 to 1862. It was the first settlement in Washington County and a resting spot for travelers. Join us as we uncover Fort Harmony and enrich our understanding of life in Utah in the mid 1800's.

PUBLIC TOURS

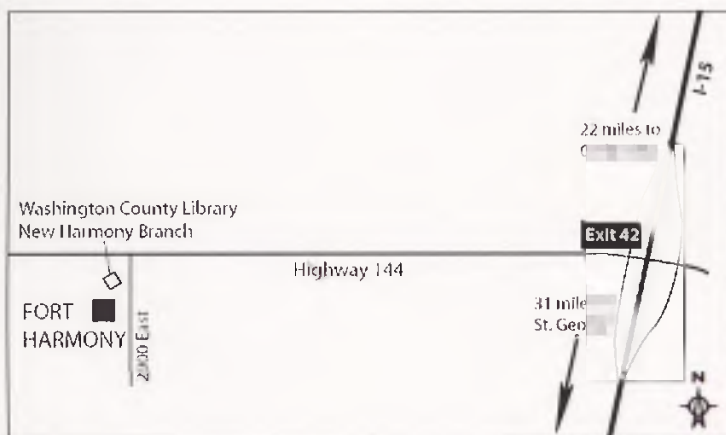

June 15, 16, & 17, 2011
10:00am & 2:00pm each day

GUEST LECTURE

Dr. Leo Lyman, Utah Historian
June 16 at 7:00 pm
Washington County Library
Fort Harmony Branch
34 South 2900 East
New Harmony, UT 84757

VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES

People wanting to get their hands dirty are welcome to volunteer their time to help with excavations, working along side BYU archaeologists.
Contact Karen Platt
(435) 867-8422
kplatt@infowest.com

CHECK OUT ALL ACTIVITIES PLANNED FOR FORT HARMONY DAYS, JUNE 13-17, 2011, AT FORTHARMONY.ORG

Thanks to all organizations involved:
Excavations conducted by the Office of Public Archaeology, Brigham Young University
Project Sponsored by the National Trust for Historic Preservation and the Fort Harmony Historical Society
Project Public Outreach Funded by the Utah Humanities Council websites: fortharmony.org opa.byu.edu utahhumanities.org
Fort Harmony rendering by Roger Simister and Louise Crosby

