

A Nara-gwee-nap, a Southern Paiute storyteller, a grandfather figure, passes along tribal legends and oral traditions and history.

Just such a man is Cedar City band tribal elder, Arthur Richards, who will speak for

NEW HARMONY FOUNDERS' DAY Saturday, Sept. 5, 2009

5:00 pm with introduction by Gerald W. Prince on

“The Native People and Their Customs Before the Pioneers Came, 1100-1852”

An arts and history festival, exhibits of local artists, crafters, hobbyists, including children, 3- 5:00 pm.

Dutch Oven / Pit Barbeque fundraising dinner at 6:30. New Harmony Ward Hall, Main and center.