

LOCAL AND GENERAL NEWS

C A Thompson left Thursday for Hurricane on business

Arthur Huntsman of Enterprise was a city visitor Monday

Sylvester Jones of Enterprise was in town Monday on business

L R Lund arrived here Saturday from Enterprise to spend a few days visiting

Help destroy the sparrows See Farm Bureau notice elsewhere in this issue

Orin Taylor arrived here Sunday from New Harmony to attend school at the D N C

Mrs Edna Jones has been appointed postmaster at Veyo, vice John L Heywood, resigned.

Mrs L A Morris left Tuesday for Newcastle to spend some time with friends and relatives

An Indian pension of $20 per month has been granted to James A Stratton of Hurricane.

The Electric Theatre opened Monday night, the first time since the 'Flu' situation developed.

Born, a son to Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Crosby, at the local hospital, Jan 3; mother and babe doing fine

The flag was flown at half-mast here Wednesday in honor of former president Theodore Roosevelt

Mrs A. J. Milne returned from Barclay, Nev., last Thursday after spending some time there visiting

You have one day more in which to make up Washington County's 1918 quota of War Savings Stamps.

Clyde McQuarrie arrived here Sunday from Eureka recuperating after a very severe attack of the "flu."

Lieut Karl Woolsey left Thursday morning for his home at Beaver after spending some time here visiting Schools reopened Monday. Some of the pupils and all of the teachers are wearing masks. The attendance is fair.

Mr. and Mrs Kenneth Hirachi left for their home at Rockville Saturday after spending the holidays here with relatives

Born, a daughter to Mr. and Mrs Clarence Morris, Jan 5; all concerned doing fine The father is in France with the A E F.

Mrs Clans Wilcox of Escalante is here in the local hospital for medical treatment. Her father, Jacob Gottfredson is here with her.

Mrs Arthur Webb of La Verkin was operated on at the local hospital Monday for appendicitis, she is reported to be doing nicely.

Co Com A A Nelson left Tuesday for his home at Enterprise after spending a few days here on business and visiting relatives

W. J. Graham, Pres of the Virgin Dome Oil Co, left Wednesday morning for Salt Lake City expecting to be gone for some time on business

Tomorrow (Friday) is the last day of grace allowed for completing 1918 War Savings Drive If you can buy some more stamps by all means do so

The ladies reading and social club will be held at the home of Mrs Elida Snow, Thursday, Jan 16 All members please come. Louisa Miles, Secretary.

Bishop David Hirschi of Rockville was a business visitor here Monday The bishop recently underwent a severe operation and has not yet fully recovered his strength

Lorin Miles returned home Tuesday from Camp Kearney, Cal, where he has been in the service for some time He is looking and feeling fine and says he enjoyed army life

Mr. and Mrs James Jones have the sympathy of the community in the death of their son Devor, who would have reached his eighth year next April and was born at Duchesne, Utah He had been ill about 10 days and was taken to the hospital last Friday morning suffering with peritonitis. He died at 2 o'clock Saturday morning. Funeral services were held at the residence Monday afternoon under direction of Bishop James McArthur and interment was made in the city cemetery.

Several letters from our soldier boys will appear in next issue

Mrs Viola Jenson arrived here Sunday to visit with her mother, Mrs Joseph McAllister.

Ed Nelson and daughter, Miss Lillian, of Fillmore arrived here Tuesday to spend some time visiting Co Com James Judd left for his home at La Verkin Tuesday after spending a couple of days here on business and visiting relatives.

Lieut Chas. E Pickett has arrived safely at New York from France and has telegraphed relatives here that he is on his way home He is expected to arrive here any time