

Stark Scenes Left in Wake of Deadly Explosion

As 'Shot' Exploded in Southern Utah Oil Well

Here are the first pictures of the oil well blast that killed 10 persons and injured others Wednesday night near St. George. The photographs were rushed to The Telegram by a plane of the Western Air Express corporation.
 Above, left, the burning derrick, with the wrecked car of Joseph Empey Jr., a victim, shown in the left foreground.

the explosion was set off.
 Center, view from a hill west of the derrick.
 Lower left, another view of the blast, with the wrecked car of Charles Alsop, another victim, in the foreground.
 Lower right, a picture of a wrecked water line, which left bystanders powerless to fight the blaze until fire extinguishers could be brought nine miles from St. George.

Short Pants

CHICAGO, March 7 (AP)—This city's "panties" robbers are going too far.

After the pair committed five robberies the other night, making all of their male victims remove their trousers, everyone thought they would be taking a short vacation.

But they resumed operations last night, visiting a dry goods store. Previously they held up aviation and telegraph offices.

F I I A HEAD TO SPEAK

Operations of the federal housing act and what the housing program can do to improve living conditions and the business outlook for Utahns will be explained to members of the Junior Democratic league by Franklin D. Richards, Utah F I I A director, at a meeting in the Newhouse hotel at 8 p. m. Thursday.
