

County NYA Convention To Be Held Here Saturday

The Washington county National Youth Administration convention will be held in St. George on Saturday, May 13, it was announced today by James M. Nelson, convention chairman. The theme of the convention will be "Outlook For Youth".

Following is the program as it will be presented starting at 10 a.m.:

Color Salute, presentation of National Flag and NYA Banner; singing of National Anthem; "Prospective Thoughts of Youth", three best essays from county group; "Of Our Leaders", prospective in education, by Glenn E. Snow, president of Dixie junior college; "Prospective In One's Self", by Mrs. Roxey Romney, county librarian; musical number; "Prospective In Trades and Business", by Mayor Albert E. Miller; talk by Wilford G. Frischknecht, Utah state director of NYA; banquet at 1 p.m. toasts and musical numbers will be given during the banquet; sports at 3 p.m., four softball games and miscellaneous games; guide tour at 6 p.m., free tour of St. George, points of interest and historical background; dance at 8 p.m., music by the college swing band.