

CAIL A. NICHOLSON

Cail Adolph Nicholson was born in Salt Lake City, July 14, 1912, a son of Stanley L. and Hannah Brox Nicholson. He spent his boyhood in Salt Lake City, where he obtained his schooling. Following his graduation from the West High school in 1931 he went to Los Angeles, where he spent a year attending electrical school.

He came to St. George with the CCC camp in 1934 and on October 13, of that year he was married to Miss Naomi Empey, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Empey, Jr., at Salt Lake City. Although he was very quiet and reserved he had won a great many friends here and was well liked. Since leaving the camp he has been assisting Mr. Empey with wiring and other forms of electrical work.

Besides his widow and parents he is survived by his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Brox and the following brothers and sisters: Helen, Vera, and Warren, of Salt Lake City.
