

Gene Kjarulf Asay

..

~Name: Gene Kjarlf (error); Birth Place: also found as Clawson, Utah; c/o Terrilynn Jorris Johannessen. HISTORY: Gene attended Dixie High School and Dixie Jr. College for 1 year in St. George, Utah. He was interested in baseball and basketball and was a member of the first baseball team to play in Kirk Newton, Scotland.

Gene played the trumpet. He worked as a service station attendant at his brother's Lynn ASAY's Phillips 66 Station, Provo, Utah. Gene joined the US Air Force 1952. He had been a life guard, saved one person, went back for another, then he drowned in a boating accident, 5 July 1956, Lake Montieth, Scotland. Buried in St. George, Utah; Lot C-13-4-1 per Sexton record. Never married:

~Name: Gene Kjarlf (error); Birth Place: also found as Clawson, Utah; c/o Terrilynn Jorris Johannessen.

HISTORY: Gene attended Dixie High School and Dixie Jr. College for 1 year in St. George, Utah. He was interested in baseball and basketball and was a member of the first baseball team to play in Kirk Newton, Scotland. Gene played the trumpet.

He worked as a service station attendant at his brother's Lynn ASAY's Phillips 66 Station, Provo, Utah. Gene joined the US Air Force 1952. He had been a life guard, saved one person, went back for another, then he drowned in a boating accident, 5 July 1956, Lake Montieth, Scotland. Buried in St. George, Utah; Lot C-13-4-1 per Sexton record. Never married: