

AGED PIONEER OF DIXIE DIES

Mrs. Mary S. Maudsley Passed
Away Here Sunday
Morning.

Mrs. Mary S. Maudsley passed away here Sunday morning, death being attributed to ailments of old age. Mrs. Maudsley was born February 1, 1845, at Dardisheim, Prussia, the daughter of Frederick and Sophia Fuhrmeister. She was baptised in April 1857, and in 1860 came to Utah with her parents.

In July, 1861, she was married to Henry J. Maudsley of Salt Lake City and in 1865 the couple came to St. George to make their home.

To this couple were born thirteen children, four of whom survive. They are Elizabeth Prisbey, Washington; Fidelia Baker, St. George; Joseph E. Maudsley, Alberta, Canada, and Isabel Kemp, Ogden. Two brothers also survive. They are Ephraim Foremaster, St. George and Joseph Foremaster, Las Vegas.

Funeral services were held Monday, December 1, in the tabernacle, with Bishop F. G. Miles of the South ward presiding.

A quartet, consisting of Wm. T. Morris, Henry Chamberlain, Geo. P. Lytle, and George T. Thompson sang O, My Father.

Prayer, Jos. T. Atkin.

The quartet sang Sometime We'll Understand.

Piano solo, Miss Evelyn Thurston.

Vocal solo, Mrs. LeRoy H. Cox.

The speakers were Samuel Bennett, C. F. Foster, Bishop Jeter Snow and Bishop F. G. Miles.

Quartet sang God Be With Us Till We Meet Again.

Prayer, President W. O. Bentley.

Interment was in the city cemetery.
