Dear Mr. Merbley

I am glad to have been able to take some of my classes under you and I am sure I have got something out of them.

Stanley Spencer

Dear Mr. Merbley.

This has been a very good year for me, with you as a teacher. I am looking forward to next year under your expert guidance.

Frank Callahan

Dear Mr. Merkley

I have enjoyed your class very much this year & I hope you see
me next year.

Lots of Luck

De Wayne Egan

Mrs Merkley,

I have enjoyed being in your class this year, and I hope I may be in it again
next year.

Lots of Luck

Donald West

Dear Mr. Merkley,

I enjoyed your class
in drafting and I hope that I may take it again
next year only I will try to do better.

And Now...

Comorrow

Dedication...

The clash of arms has ceased around the world. The greatest peace has come to end the greatest war. Human hopes have been waiting for a brighter tomorrow, while ancient hates have fought for the savage selfishness of yesterday. We stand today on the threshold of that tomorrow . . . and with its dawn, we at Dixie, our hearts jubilant, our hopes high, are ready to step into tomorrow's world.

... And Now Tomorrow

Thru These Portals . . .

School

INSTITUTE . . . The most attractive building on our college campus. A common gathering place for club functions and special parties. Has a magnetic appeal for those especially interested in courtship and marriage.

GYMNASIUM . . . Despite the rumor that termites run rampant under our very feet, the gym has been the scene of many happy hours that will be long remembered. The thrilling basketball games, the lively Phys. Ed. classes, the novelty "stocking shuffles" are only fragments of our days at Dixie.

SCIENCE . . . Common occurrences: Female students fainting, while dissecting small animals in the biology lab; the eternal grinding of some car that refuses to start; the screams following loud explosions in the chem lab; the sobbing of broken hearted "would-be" cooks as the candy turns to sugar and the cake falls.

Among the uncommon occurrences . . . a sudden snowstorm.

The most long awaited day of the year is "Dixie Day." Chosen to reign as queen for this event was vivacious and popular MARIAM CHRISTENSEN from Delta, Utah. Attending our queen were: Anette Pendleton, St. George; Maurine Bentley, St. George; Geraldine Judd, Kanab, Utah; Eula Mae Earl, Overton, Nevada; Shirley Milne, St. George; and Dawn Andrus, St. George.

Selected to reign as the Harvest Queen was this campus favorite of Dixie . . .

In Memoriam

PAUL NIELSON

DAVID FINLAYSON

JUNIOR NIELSON

It may be best, just in the happiest, sunniest hour of all the voyage, while eager winds are kissing every sail, to dash against the unseen rock, and in an instant hear the billows roar above a sunken ship. For whether in mid-sea or 'mong the breakers of the farther shore, a wreck at last must mark the end of each and all. And every life, no matter if its every hour is rich with love and every moment jeweled with a joy, will, at its close, become a tragedy as sad and deep and dark as can be woven of the warp and woof of mystery and death.

Life is a narrow vale between the cold and barren peaks of two eternities. We strive in vain to look beyond the heights. We cry aloud, and the only answer is the echo of our wailing cry. From the voiceless lips of the unreplying dead there comes no word; but in the night of death, hope sees a star and listening love can hear the rustle of a wing.

—ROBERT G. INGERSOLI.
