UNITED FOR VICTORY

Lyle Black

Dear Lyle:

I have had more fun the last year with you than I have had meeting such
I hope you will remember me as one of you (and I mean during the year of 41-42 and all the rest of the year to come and the one that are to come to a pal

Abigail Brown

Dear Lyle:

You are all right.
You could work a little more but I am sure you are going to do well in life. You have my best wishes

Graduating Class

*Best hope, our friendship has been long, and it is my hope that we may long still be friends.
a wonderful pal,
Paul Thompson*

PAUL THOMPSON

Our efficient Class President. Jack of all trades and master of them all.

DAWN ANDRUS

The music of her violin is as refreshing as her name.

CLAYTON ATKIN

The school's Lone Ranger.

HELEN G. BATEMAN

One of those naughty blonds. Plays the flute and charms Ted.

LYLE BLEAK

Dislikes the girls. Maybe it's the girls, and maybe he is just an inveterate misogynist.

MISHA LaREE BENTLEY

Let her have her own way, she's worth it. A modern Cleopatra.

BILLIE BRINGHUST

His studies were pursued but never effectively overtaken.

SYBIL ANDERSON

Passionate in her own way. Her history book looks it.

LLOYD ADAMS

Washington's Earthquake McGoon. He has the type of dark wavy hair women love.

MAURINE BENTLEY

Her interest in boys is not limited to seniors.

KEITH BAKER

Peddles papers and a pretty good line.

PEGGY BLEAK

Training for defense. Wears chic parachute skirts.

GAIL BRACKEN

He's gone from where he "ain't" to where he is.

CATHERINE CARTER

Her brain is as nimble as her waist. (Immune to alarm clocks.)

Graduating Class

CLAIR BROOKS

Makes the pony express look sick. Has no enemies.

MARY CHENEY

California's contribution to the happiness of Woodward's male sex.

WAYNE CARTER

The tire shortage hit him hard.

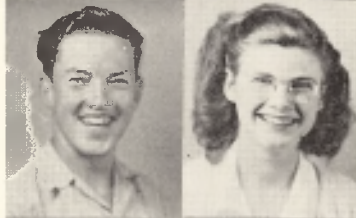

THELMA COX

As likable and pretty a girl as could be found in Dixieland.

CALVIN COTTAM

He took only enough time off his studies to put a wave in his hair.

ARLENE ENGLESTEAD

An all around girl. Displayed many accomplishments while attending our school.

DALE COVINGTON

Some force greater than our own caused him to leave our midst.

THELMA CHADBURN

"Blessed is the woman who having nothing to say keeps still."

*Dear Lyle
Remember the good old days in art arial.
Ray Gullen*

ELWYN CAMERON

He could carry the weight of the world on his shoulders.

WANDA COOPER

Has an entrancing smile that never wears out.

FRANK CHURCH

One of Uncle Sam's staunchest nephews. Miss Hall's favorite curtain puller.

MONA COX

"Those who bring sunshine into the lives of others cannot keep it from themselves."

DONALD COTTAM

Tries very hard in his own modest way.

CORINNE ESPLIN

Her ties with the college promote better friendship between the two institutions.

Graduating Class

JACK CROSBY

Personality—plus. Our dependable Commissioner of Amusements.

SHIRLEY FOREMASTER

Affairs in Parowan and Hurricane keep her busy.

PRESTON EMPEY

Has two ambitions: has realized one, to be a good saxophone player; the other to join the Navy.

HELEN GARDNER

Believes the old saying, "A woman's hair is her crowning glory".

DEAN FULLERTON

"One needn't be big to do big things."

LORNA HALL

In her modest, unassuming way she has found a place in the hearts of us all.

AUSTIN GENTRY

The difference between Austin and Rubinoff is the color of Austin's hair.

LORNA FORDHAM

Woodward's prize beauty package.

DeWAYNE EMMETT

He rides the bus and is opposed to War Saving time.

ELIZABETH L. GARDNER

A charming girl with many accomplishments. Her ambition is to reign over the homemaking department.

DAVID FINLAYSON

A member of the "Woodward Brain Trust".

CLEOPHA GUBLER

I tried to think of something I knew most about, and the first thing that came to my mind was athletics.

EDWARD GARDNER

His dramatic abilities are exceeded only by his love for the ranch.

CAROL JACKSON

Her most pleasurable moments are spent writing and receiving letters.

Graduating Class

DeWAYNE GENTRY

Woodward's Nelson Eddy. Our future man behind the plow.

CECILE JOHNSON

Her intellectual ability is exceeded only by her ability to rhumba, or vice-versa.

DeLORA JOHNSEN

Naturally curly hair and a pleasing voice, the envy of any girl.

STANLEY GUBLER

Strongest of the strong sex. His only weakness is women.

LESTER GUBLER

An athletic Dutchman with blond hair and a "Mary Nazer complex".

MAURINE JONES

Dramatic ability plus beauty make her a girl among girls.

THELMA LANG

Sandtown's redhead with an interest in Overton.

NORMAN HAFEN

A big, bashful basketball star.

DARREL HAFEN

"Gentlemen prefer blonds; but show me a snappy brunette, and I'll show you that I'm no gentleman."

WILLA RAE LEWIS

Her intellect and figure are well-balanced.

BETTY LYTLE

Has enough feminine charm to interest any boy.

CLARK HAFEN

The tyrant of the Annual Staff. A combination of Shakespeare and Ghengis Khan.

CHESTER HARDY

Mr. Schmutz's prize baritone player.

EDNA MAE MILLER

Woodward's "Mad Russian". We understand she flirts.

Graduating Class

LOUIS HOLT

Has a girl in every town and slights none.

MARY NAZER

"A million dollar baby from the five and ten cent store."

JAY HUNT

A romeo from Ivins.

GLORIA NELSON

Tops her natural beauty with her individual hair styles.

SHYRL IVERSON

One of "Look's" favorite blond models.

ANNETTE PENDLETON

Very quiet and refined. Enjoyable company for anyone.

SHELDON JOHNSON

A good student with many accomplishments.

SHIRLEE MILNE

One of the best dressed girls in school, but a little shy.

KAYE HUNT

Has both eyes trained on Leeds. A good looking blond.

JEAN NELSON

"One who says little has more time to think."

GRANT IVERSON

Babe Ruth the second. Hails from Washington.

MAURINE OLDS

Lives on the hill but doesn't look down on anyone.

DeLOY JOHNSON

A well-versed movie critic.

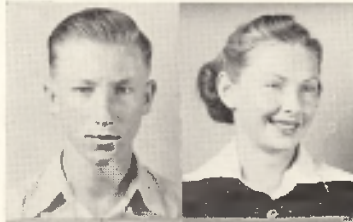

ELDA PETERSON

Likes to lean her head on a certain "Cedar chest".

Graduating Class

GUY JOLLEY

A "Jolley Guy" from Leeds. Says little, but how do we know what he thinks?

GLENNA PICKETT

School is not her first love. Finds other things more interesting.

LAUREL PRINCE

Lives, loves, laughs and chews gum with zest.

SAMUEL KNIGHT

Plans to save the nation after the war with his farm products.

DONALD LUND

"He that hath a beard is more than a man." Our favorite sports commentator.

KATHERINE STERLING

Blond and blue-eyed. What more could the boys want?

MELBA SULLIVAN

"Me and the Royal Mounties always get our man".

SHELDON McCUNE

Causes the girls many "palpitations" of the heart.

DICK MILES

Our school president, the man who has confidence in himself leads the swarms that follow.

MAXINE SULLIVAN

One of those rare students who can keep her hair looking nice and be a basketball star at the same time.

ELEANOR DEAN SYPHUS

Has enough faith in herself to stand by her own convictions.

BOBBY MORRIS

"Our best bet for Hollywood". He'll go a long way in the dramatic world.

JOHN MURDOCK

Has a contagious grin. He proved his talent as Elmer Tuttle in "June Mad".

ROMA TERRY

Conscientious and dependable. Enjoys life.
